All Districts Retain Their Leaders Today Most All Advance Their Score Over Yesterday

THIS WEEK SPECIAL ADDS ZEST TO CONTEST

Miss Martha Voss Continues to Lead Over All For Highest Honors

Once more the votes have been counted in the Bulletin contest and most all added to their score. Miss Martha Voss continues to lead for first and highest honors.

All other districts retain the same leaders, making this the first day for over two weeks that some of the four districts have not changed their leaders.

This week's special offer has struck a popular chord and the old subscribers are taking advantage of the same. This offer closes February 10 and the old subscribers will secure the same number of votes this week that the new subscribers have been receiving.

There are many people who are willing to subscribe if they were asked. Get up your courage, girls, and go after these backward subscribers. Nothing counts so fast in votes as the yearly subscriptions, and there are plenty of people willing to pay their money down. While the contest is in its infancy, do your work, and let the end take care of itself. If you do well now, you need not worry about the future.

Several of the contestants who are at the bottom of the list have large reserves and will begin to vote them soon.

It is much easier to keep steadily at it and get a few subscriptions each day, than it is to delay and then be obliged to do all the work at the last; if you have the votes in reserve and know you are getting more daily, you will feel much more secure than if you depend upon promises and put off your efforts until the last week. Get all the votes you can now. Votes in hand are much better than promises of votes as many will discover ere the end of the contest. Subscriptions are easy to get if you go after them. Get annual subscriptions where possible, as you get many more votes for them.

New Subscriptions and Old. A number of inquiries are made daily as to the votes allowed on new and old subscriptions. Votes are allowed on both, but only when the renewals pay in advance.

New subscribers mean increase in circulation. Therefore no one will be allowed to change the name of the old subscriber from one member of the family to another, in order to receive more votes.

New subscriptions mean people who were not on our books at the time the contest was announced, which was January 2nd.

Special Offer This Week. Commencing today and closing on the 10th of February, all votes issued on OLD subscriptions will count the same as NEW. This offer will give all the Bulletin subscribers a chance to pay up their subscription before Feb. 10 and at the same time will give them the full benefit of the votes that the New subscribers have been having. Remember that this offer will close February 10th and you get the same number of votes for old subscriptions as for New. In other words all subscriptions count the same until February 10th.

Contest Closes March 15th, 8 P. M. Monday, March the fifteenth is the time set for the close of the contest and all votes and subscriptions MUST be in the Bulletin office on that date. The closing hour will be at 8 o'clock p. m. on March 15th, and those depending on the mails to bring their subscriptions to the Bulletin office MUST have all votes and subscriptions in the ballot box before 8 o'clock p. m. on that date. The judges for the final count of the ballots will be chosen from prominent business men of Honolulu; their names will be announced in due season. Each contestant will have the right to select a friend or relative to represent her and look after her interests during the final count of the ballots. An alarm clock will be used to signal the closing hour, which will be at 8 o'clock p. m. sharp, March 15th. When the alarm sounds the judges will take charge of the ballot box and when all in the office at that hour are waited upon, the box will be opened and the final count will commence. There will be no bidding for ballots, as there will be no money or subscriptions accepted after the ballot box is opened. No one will know how many votes each candidate has deposited, therefore, no one will know how many votes are required to win. No one connected with the Bulletin has any idea of the votes that are being held in reserve as no record of the ballots being held in reserve

Ballots are issued for each subscription turned in, and when the contestant takes it from the office and returns at some later date and deposits it in the ballot box, it is published in the first issue of the Bulletin, but no record of the reserve vote is kept. It is always possible to tell if a ballot is bona fide, but outside of that record, no tab is kept. Nothing but a square deal goes in this contest, and the books of this office are always open for investigation. No tips are given, and the contestant that secures the most votes will win, and the one who wins interest in her vote collecting and not the one depending on her friends to take subscriptions at the last minute. Those who take advantage of the special offer now in effect will stand the best chance of winning, but the one who depends on something better may be disappointed. The contestant standing the best show to win in this contest, is the one that solicits her
